

G-B INTERNATIONAL INTERNATIONAL SHIPS REGISTRY OF GUINEA-BISSAU

INFO BULLETIN Nr. 08/2023, 05/12/2023

Subject: “IMO GISIS Modules Updates: The “International Ships Registry of Guinea-Bissau” (G-B I.S.R.) Officially Assigned as Contact Point for the “Registry” Function for the Republic of Guinea-Bissau”.

Ref.: (a) IMO Circular Letter No. 4190, dated 17 December 2019;
(b) A 31/Res.1142, dated 10 January 2020.

1. It is gladly announced that the G-B I.S.R. has been officially assigned within the IMO GISIS context, as the contact point under the module “Registry” for the Republic of Guinea-Bissau. GISIS (Global Integrated Shipping Information System), which is developed, maintained, and headed by the International Maritime Organization (IMO). This system (website) is aimed at allowing on-line access to the information and data supplied to the IMO Secretariat by Maritime Administrations, its member states, and port authorities, in compliance with IMO’s instruments, regulations, and guidelines.

2. As per 27th of November 2023, pursuant to IMO Circular Letter No. 4190, “Invitation to communicate information to the Organization on Registries of ships for input into the Registries of ships function in the Contact Points module in GISIS” and the respective Assembly Resolution A 31/Res.1142, “Measures to Prevent the Fraudulent Registration and Fraudulent Registries”, the IMO GISIS Module “Contact Points” was updated with the coordinates of the International Ships Registry of Guinea-Bissau, for the Function “Registry” With the implementation of the concrete procedure it is believed by the IMO competent bodies that potential fraudulent practices could be better prevented if accurate and complete information on the legitimate bodies authorized to register ships for Governments is available to all maritime users at all times and also recognizes the Global Integrated Shipping Information System (GISIS) to be used as a centralized repository of this information
